Go to www.euroclub-schools.org. Enter the French Zone or the Mystery Zone. Click on Fantôme de l’Opéra. By reading through the text on the web page, can you find and write the following words and sentences in French?

Écris en français:

1. the French writer ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

2. It is a novel. ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………….

3. There is a mysterious lake. ……………………………………………………………………………………………………………………….

4. It is love at first sight! ……………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

5. an underground world …………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

6. each night …………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………….

7. But Christine loves the viscount. ……………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

8. the mysterious, sweet voice ……………………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

9. She sings for him. ……………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………….

10. There are lots of people. …………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

11. according to witnesses ……………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

12. He is dressed in black. ……………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

13. a true story …………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

14. perhaps …………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

15. organ music …………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

16. from time to time ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

17. The phantom is waiting for you. ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

18. Look around you. ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

19. the very jealous phantom ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

20. The phantom falls in love with the singer. …………………………………………………………………………………………………

.................................................................

A note: On the web page, there is a French expression - 'le coup de foudre' - which literally means 'the lightning strike' or 'the thunderbolt'. It is also used to express 'love at first sight'. In other words, when there is a moment of love at first sight it is similar to the speed of lightning!